Himeji Castle: Ghostly Apparitions and Samurai Legends

Himeji Castle, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is not only renowned for its architectural beauty but also for its eerie reputation. The castle is said to be haunted by the ghost of Okiku, a young woman who was falsely accused of stealing and subsequently murdered. Visitors often report hearing the sound of her wailing, particularly at night, echoing through the castle's corridors.

Ryogoku Kokugikan: Haunted Sumo Arena with a Violent Past

Ryogoku Kokugikan, Tokyo's renowned sumo arena, is believed to be haunted by the ghosts of wrestlers who died during competitive matches. Witnesses have reported seeing shadowy figures in the arena and hearing the sound of invisible footfalls. Some even claim to have felt a cold presence during sumo tournaments, adding an eerie element to the already intense atmosphere.
